

GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP

Improving Virginia's Adult Guardian and Conservator System, 2021

RECOMMENDATIONS

Including more information on prospective guardians in court reports ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2003 of the Code of Virginia to require that guardian ad litem reports to the court include i) the size of the prospective guardian's current guardianship caseload, ii) whether the prospective guardian employs representatives to manage day-to-day tasks of guardianship, (iii) the travel time between the prospective guardian's residence or place of business and the expected residence of the adult under consideration for guardianship, iv) whether the prospective guardian works as a professional guardian on a full-time basis, and v) whether the guardian is named as an alleged perpetrator in any substantiated Adult Protective Services complaint. (Recommendation 2)

Suitability of prospective guardians in GAL reports ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2003 of the Code of Virginia to require that guardians ad litem include in their reports an assessment of suitability and propriety of all individuals interested in serving as a guardian for the adult who is the subject of the petition. (Recommendation 4)

Requiring training for private guardians ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending Title 64.2 of the Code of Virginia to require any individual who is named as a private guardian, and staff who perform duties on their behalf, to undergo guardianship training developed by the Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services within four months of appointment and give local departments of social services responsibility for verifying compliance with the training requirement. (Recommendation 19)

Private guardianship responsibilities for DARS ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending Title 51.1, Chapter 14, Article 6 of the Code of Virginia to grant new responsibilities to the Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services to strengthen the accountability and quality of the private guardian system. These new responsibilities should include: providing information about Adult Protective Services complaints against prospective guardians to guardians ad litem as part of the guardianship court hearing process; providing and/or coordinating training to private guardians and local department of social services staff; facilitating additional monitoring of private guardians through independent care visits; improving guardianship data tracking and quality control; and creating and administering a private guardian complaint process. (Recommendation 24)

Changes in circumstances or conditions of adults under guardianship ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2019 of the Code of Virginia to require the guardian to notify designated contacts, as specified by the court, of certain changes in the condition or circumstances of an adult under guardianship, including a change to the adult's primary residence, a temporary change in living location, admission to a hospital or hospice care, and death, as well as provide them with a copy of the annual guardianship report each year at the time it is submitted to the local department of social services. (Recommendation 31)

Prohibiting guardians from "self-dealing" ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2009 of the Code of Virginia to (i) define self-dealing, at a minimum, to include using the estate of an adult under guardianship or conservatorship to complete a sale or transaction with the guardian or conservator, their spouse, agent, attorney, or business with which they have a financial interest; (ii) prohibit self-dealing by a guardian or conservator unless court approval is first obtained or the sale or transaction was entered into before the guardian or conservator was appointed; and (iii) make voidable by the court any sale or transaction that constitutes self-dealing. (Recommendation 32)

Assessing demand for public guardianship ► The General Assembly may wish to consider including one-time funding in the Appropriation Act for the Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services (DARS) to hire a third party to study the need for expanding the capacity of the state's public guardianship program in total and by region; to assess the actual cost of providing expanded public guardianship services (personnel, overhead, etc.); and to assess the additional cost of providing equal funding to all provider organizations for the same types of public guardianship slots. (Recommendation 35)

Requiring conservator training ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2021 of the Code of Virginia to require conservators to complete state-provided training within four months of their court appointment, and consider amending Title 64.2, Chapter 12 of the Code of Virginia, to assign commissioners of accounts responsibility for verifying compliance with training requirements for conservators under their supervision. (Recommendation 38)

Ensuring accuracy of initial inventory of adults under conservatorship ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending Title 64.2, Chapter 12 of the Code of Virginia to require conservators to (i) notify family members and other interested parties, who are specified in the initial petition for conservatorship, that an initial inventory of assets will be submitted, and (ii) provide copies of the initial inventory to notified parties, if requested, and inform these parties that they may raise any concerns about the accuracy and completeness of the inventory with the commissioner of accounts overseeing the conservator. (Recommendation 39)

Including adults' assets and income in guardian ad litem reports ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2003 of the Code of Virginia to require guardians ad litem to include in their report to the court all assets and income of adults under consideration for guardianship that they identify when determining the amount of surety on a conservator's bond. (Recommendation 40)

Including adults' assets and income in court orders ► The General Assembly may wish to consider amending § 64.2-2009 of the Code of Virginia to require the court order appointing a conservator to include a list of the financial resources of the adult being placed under conservatorship to the extent known as identified in the petition for conservatorship and the guardian ad litem report. (Recommendation 41)
